Adobe has moved all creative applications to Creative Cloud. Creative Cloud can be purchased in two options:

1. Device Licensing: Creative Cloud device licenses are meant for shared computers or campus computer labs. This version does not include Adobe Creative Cloud online features.
2. Named User Licensing: Creative Cloud named user licenses includes all Adobe Creative Cloud online features.

Creative Cloud is a yearly license that will be prorated every two months. Contract renews in September.

Adobe Acrobat Pro is a yearly license that renews in February.

Anyone in the department of Liberal Arts must check with helplibarts@colostate.edu or stop by the Liberal Arts IT office before purchasing to determine whether you need a Device or Named-User license.
